Bill and Laura will soon be running a 'Compass Course', open to anyone who wishes to learn more about the Christian faith or who would value the opportunity to 'refresh'. The course will begin on Friday 24th February at 7.30pm in the Wesley Room, and will run for six sessions. There will be publicity and further information available nearer the time. You'd find it a big help to have your own copy of the book to accompany the sessions. If you'd like a copy please let either Laura or Bill know. They're £2.50 each.

Havant Passion Play has generously been given the use of an empty shop for two weeks from 6th - 18th February 2017 at 26 North Street, Emsworth. We are looking for good quality items to sell and people to come and buy! We are also looking for people who can help in the shop, to sort and price items as they come in. We will be able to take in items any time the shop is open as well as 10:15-1pm on Sunday 5th. Opening times for the shop are: Monday - Saturday 9:30-4:30, Sunday 10-4:00. The Mayor of Havant, Councillor, Mrs Faith Ponsonby, has agreed to come and 'Officially' open the shop at 2:30pm on Monday 6th February, although trading will begin from 9:30 that morning. Everyone is welcome at the official opening. We can take most items to sell, except for food , electrical goods and large pieces of furniture. If you have furniture for sale please give us a photograph of each item with your details on the back and we will display them in the shop. For further details or if you can help in any way please contact jackychong@btinternet.com or call in the shop.

Hampshire Alert

Stuart Neal, our local Police Support Officer draws our attention to this communication system to report any suspicious or anti-social behaviour within our area. It can also let us know what is happening within our community if you register. Further details on the notice board or online at: www.hampshirealert.co.uk

If you have items to include in the next notices please email them by midday on 16th February to emcnotices19@gmail.com.
