Sunday 29 September

Harvest Festival

10.00am Morning Worship for Harvest
Led by Revd Geoffrey Scarlett followed by Harvest Lunch (see below)

6.30pm Christians Together in Emsworth
United Evening Service at St James'

This morning Bill is at Bedhampton at 10.30am, and Laura is at Gosport at 10.30am.

Our Harvest Festival is next Sunday, 29th September, and we are delighted to welcome Revd Geoffrey Scarlett to lead the service. Afterwards, lunch will be provided by the Ladies Group. There will be an opportunity to give a donation of money to help cover the cost; any extra money will be given to All We Can. We will need an idea of numbers for catering, so please sign the form in the atrium today, if you would like to join us for lunch. This is also a good opportunity to bring something for the local Beacon Food Bank, and the collecting box will be in the atrium as you come into church. Suitable items are tinned food, packets and other non-perishable goods. Thank you.

Ride and Stride

Last Saturday Geoffrey and Pamela (together with Andrew Sheard and Colin Brotherton from St James's) completed a 15 mile cycle ride calling at 12 churches. In addition during the previous week Pamela and Geoffrey walked the Octagon Way calling at the 8 churches of the Octagon parish. Any further sponsors or donations in aid of the Historic Churches Trust would be appreciated. Dot is collecting for us today.

The Pastoral Centre coffee bar has the following empty slots in the near future: Tuesday 24th September from 2-4pm, and Tuesday 8th October (no time given, but probably 2-4pm). Please call Mandy if you are able to do either.
